Premier League Updates

Manchester City made the biggest statement of the round, winning 3-0 at Liverpool on Sunday with three goals in 13 minutes (65th, 68th and 78th). City had 65% of possession and 15 shots to Liverpool's 10, and Liverpool finished the match with Ryan Gravenberch sent off for a controversial second yellow card. City lead the table on 18 points, the only side with a perfect record. Arsenal held steady in second on 15 points after a 2-1 comeback win over Leeds on Saturday. Leeds scored first in the 55th minute, but Arsenal equalized in the 62nd and won it in the 70th, finishing with 59% of possession and 14 shots. Chelsea beat Bournemouth 5-1 on only eight shots, scoring twice in the opening three minutes, and Bournemouth remain winless. Brighton are third on 13 points after a 2-0 win at Sunderland. Manchester United and Tottenham drew 1-1. United scored in the 73rd minute, and Spurs equalized in the 90th despite being down to ten men since the 78th. Elsewhere, Crystal Palace beat Nottingham Forest 3-1, Ipswich beat Fulham 2-1, and Aston Villa drew 2-2 with Brentford. Hull and Everton also drew 2-2. On Monday, Coventry majorly upset Newcastle 4-1, moving up to 14th. Tottenham and Bournemouth are still winless on three points apiece, and Fulham are bottom on two. Next Saturday, City host Ipswich (about 79% win probability), Liverpool visit Brentford, and Chelsea travel to Everton.
