

by Chandler Black.
Editor of fashion.
Weekly contributor fashion scene.
Edited by Shailene Martin, and Malik Maxwell.

The adaptation of the designer fashion company, Vivienne Westwood.

There's quite a bit of designer companies out there doing the same thing, when it comes to bags, clothing items, or accessories. Many brands struggle to adapt to modern style that has constant modification and flare. Vivienne Westwood, on the other hand, is breaking that standard. With their modern designs in clothing, jewelry, and footwear, they remain a unique and progressive brand ever since the beginning.

You can do your own research to compare Vivienne Westwood to the other brands, such as; Gucci, Louis Vuitton, and Chanel. You can see how these three brands have similar, if not the same ideals and artistic drive within their designs and production. To compare those brands to Vivienne Westwood you can see that Vivienne Westwood is adapting to modern style and fashion trends. They also do a great job at projecting their own twist onto current fashion trends.

