

Kelissa Lee
Sports Editor
Weekly Contributor of College Softball

Upset After Upset in the Top 25

Oklahoma stays No. 1 in Division I, remaining undefeated going into the second month of college softball. Baylor climbs to No. 10 after posting a 5-0 record in the Nutter Classic tournament, beating 3 of the top 25 teams. In the same tournament, UCLA upsets No. 5 Tennessee after a rough start to their season, with 3 homeruns in the game to put them on top 6-2. Fresno State also got the upset win by defeating No. 20 Mississippi State 3-1. Texas remains No. 2 in the Division I, despite their fall to No. 12 Stanford on their home turf in Austin TX. Finally, the Hawkeyes of Kansas took down No. 17 Texas A&M in a tight game with the score of 1-0. South Alabama upset No. 18 South Carolina 5-2.

Your Lady Pengs faced No. 1 Concordia in their conference kickoff this weekend, unable to get the upset, falling short in all four games of the series. The nail-biting first game went into extra innings, with a final score of 0-3. The second game ended in a 3-0 defeat as well. Sunday the Penguins battled back falling just short with final scores of 0-2 and a back-and-forth 6-8 finale. Next the Penguins head to Hawaii to tackle the Vulcans of University of Hawaii at Hilo March 1st and 2nd. The Vulcans have had an impressive season so far, at 7-1. Good luck to Penguins!

Editors: Wendy and Michelle

PacWest Conference

Game 1 Final

CU	2	5	2
	R	H	E
	0	1	0

Game 2 Final

CU	8	13	1
	R	H	E
	6	11	1