

Editor: NFL News and Updates

Weekly Contributor: San Francisco 49ers

---

San Francisco 49ers Week Eight Recap

Week eight of the NFL Football season is over; let's look at how the San Francisco 49ers did. The 49ers hosted the Cincinnati Bengals at Levi's Stadium. The 49ers were reeling from two losses and needed a win before their bye week. The team remained without Deebo Samuel and Trent Williams for this game, which left considerable shoes to fill. The scoring began with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Joe Burrow to Tyler Boyd. The 49ers responded quickly with a two-yard touchdown run by Christian McCaffrey. Right as the first quarter was ending, the Bengals scored another touchdown, with Joe Burrow finding Andrei Iosivas for a two-yard touchdown pass. The 49ers got three more points before halftime, with Jake Moody connecting on a 36-yard field goal. This brought the score to 14-10, with the Bengals leading and set to receive the ball in the second half. Coming out of the half, the Bengals scored, with Evan McPherson nailing a 56-yard field goal. The Bengals followed this up with another score, with Joe Burrow finding Ja'marr Chase for a 17-yard touchdown pass. The 49ers were able to respond with Brock Purdy finding Christian McCaffrey for a four-yard touchdown pass. The Bengals sealed the deal with Joe Mixon rushing in for a five-yard touchdown. The final score was 31-17, leading the 49ers to drop their third game. This brought their record to 5-3 as they head into the bye week. Look for most of the injured 49ers to return after the bye week when the 49ers head to Jacksonville to play the Jaguars. One player who may be out longer is guard Aaron Banks, who is having a great season.

---

Upcoming Schedule

11/12 - 49ers @ Jaguars

11/19 Buccaneers @ 49ers

11/23 49ers @ Seahawks

12/3 49ers @ Eagles

12/10 Seahawks @ 49ers

---