Cowboys Can't Handle Falcons

This past weekend Dak Prescott and the Dallas Cowboys suffered another loss to the Atlanta Falcons 27-21, making their overall record this season 3 wins and 5 losses. With the Cowboys having key players out due to injuries, things have gone from bad to worse. While the Cowboys were looking to fight back late in the 4th quarter, Prescott was ruled out of the game due to a hamstring injury. These types of injuries mess with the mentality of the teams, fans, and community. The talk around town is that the Dallas Cowboys need to focus on how they can prepare for next season.
