

Johannah Markrud

Editor: College Sports

Weekly Contributor: Dominican Athletics

Article Title: Dominican Women's Basketball vs. Azusa Pacific University

Editors: Brooke Vafi

Dominican Women's Basketball vs. Azusa Pacific University

On December 7th, Dominican women's basketball played against the number 14 team, Azusa Pacific University. APU started the game strong with a double point lead. Throughout the first half of the game the Dominican struggled to get shots in the basket. In the second quarter, head coach Tim Lakose put in senior Andraya Perez, and helped spark the Penguins to keep battling. Perez finished the game with 13 points. Sophomore Adia Walker also finished the game with 13 points and helped to bring the energy her team was feeding off of. The Penguins were able to close the gap going into the half, 41-38. After returning from the half, Azusa Pacific was able to tighten their defense up and come out on top, finishing the game on top, 84-77.

Dominican Women's Basketball will be on the road at Jessup University on December 12th.