San Francisco 49ers Week Ten Recap

Week ten of the NFL season featured the 49ers traveling to Jacksonville, Florida, to battle with the Jaguars. The 49ers got some reinforcements back, with Trent Williams and Deebo Samuel returning to action and Chase Young making his debut. The scoring started when Brock Purdy found Brandon Aiyuk for a 13-yard touchdown pass. The 49ers followed this up with a 39-yard field goal by Jake Moody. The Jaguars managed to drive down the field, which led to Brandon McManus nailing a 37-yard field goal. With seconds remaining in the first half, Jake Moody nailed another field goal from 35 yards. This brought the score to 13-3 going into the break. The 49ers received the ball to start the third quarter and struck fast. Brock Purdy connected with George Kittle for a 66-yard touchdown, making it 20-3. Deebo Samuel then got into the action, breaking off a 23-yard run for a score. Brock Purdy ended the day with one more touchdown, this time finding Kyle Juszczyk for a 22-yard pass. The final score was 34-3, bringing the 49ers record to 6-3. The 49ers come back home as they host the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Keep an eye on Aaron Banks to possibly make a return to action.
