Vintage Culture, RL Grime, and Four Tet Light Up San Francisco

Prepare for a night of electrifying beats and immersive music experiences as three iconic electronic music artists come to our city. Vintage Culture, RL Grime, and Four Tet will grace the San Francisco skyline. This star-studded lineup promises a memorable night for music lovers and nightlife enthusiasts alike. October 28th, Vintage Culture will be kicking off the night. Known for his blend of deep and melodic house, Vintage Culture, whose real name is Lukas Ruiz, has taken the electronic dance music scene by storm. His soulful and groovy tunes, alongside his high-energy performances, have earned him a dedicated global fan base. With tracks like "Deep Inside of Me" and "In the Dark," he's sure to set the dance floor on fire at the Midway from 9:00pm to 2:00am. RL Grime is none other than the trap and bass music maestro with heart-pounding drops and spine-tingling basslines. His powerful and innovative production style has made him a pioneer in the trap genre; with tracks like "Core" and "Aurora" becoming anthems of the electronic music community. Brace yourself for a night of unforgettable energy as RL Grime takes the stage at the Bill Graham from 8:00pm to 1:00pm. Last but certainly not least, Four Tet, the master of electronica and ambient sounds, will take us on a mesmerizing journey. Kieran Hebden, the man behind on the decks, has a unique style for fusing various musical elements to create a unique and ethereal experience. You can catch him at the historic Cow Palace Civic Auditorium from 9:00pm to 12:00am. For electronic music lovers, this is an event that cannot be missed. So mark your calendars, grab your dancing shoes, and get ready for an unforgettable night when Vintage Culture, RL Grime, and Four Tet light up the night.
