Coffee Reviews Around Dominican University

By Laila Ortiz

Pink Owl

Overall Rating: 8

I get a iced lavender latte at Pink Owl and they make it good every time. It's never watered down and never too sweet. It's the perfect amount of lavender and you can even get a non-fat version. Another reason why I love Pink Owl is since I go so frequently, I get a lot of stars and eventually you get around $2-5 off your drink. Another bonus is that it's only 7 minutes away from campus. It can be a little pricey but overall my rating of Pink Owl is a solid 8.

Woodlands Market/ Equator Coffee

Overall Rating: 9

I got an iced vanilla latte at the Woodlands Market located in Tiburon and it was delicious. It was a good price for regular size coffee and surprisingly, it was a lot of coffee for 120z. The taste of the coffee was the perfect amount of vanilla and you can tell they don't use cheap components or generic artificial syrups. The taste comes down to their commitment to premium, locally sourced Bay Area ingredients.

Aroma Cafe

Overall Rating: 3

I got an iced vanilla latte at Aroma Cafe located in downtown San Rafael and it was not pleasing at all. It tasted too bitter and strong and I wasn't able to taste any of the vanilla. The after taste was horrible and it eventually became watery. The only positive thing is its proximity to campus and the pastry options.

Fox & Kit Cafe

Overall Rating: 6

I got an iced lavender latte at Fox & Kit Cafe located in downtown San Rafael and I had a pretty good experience. It was smaller than I would've liked but it was good. I would've enjoyed the coffee a bit more if I could taste the lavender.. It was a solid coffee overall and the place was very cute inside with a park for kids to play in while parents get their coffee.

Tartine

Overall Rating: 5

I got an iced vanilla latte at Tartine which is located in Mill Valley and it was a little watered down with not much flavor. It could’ve been sweeter and had more of a vanilla taste too. Otherwise it was decent and not too pricey. The vanilla flavor was there, but it didn't really stand out, and the coffee was a little underwhelming.