San Francisco 49ers Week Five Recap

Week five of the NFL season is over and let's take a look at how the San Francisco 49ers did. The 49ers hosted the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday Night Football. Both teams are off to good starts to the NFL season, so this was a real measuring game for both teams. The 49ers were the first to score, coming from a 19 yard pass from Brock Purdy to George Kittle for a touchdown. Going into the second quarter, Brock Purdy found George Kittle one more time for a 38 yard touchdown pass, bringing the score to 14-0. The Cowboys were able to fire back with Dak Prescott connecting on a 26 yard touchdown pass to KaVontae Turpin. The 49ers scored once more before halftime on a one yard touchdown run by Christian McCaffrey, making the score 21-7 at the half. The Cowboys received the second half kickoff and netted three points on a 50 yard field goal by Brandon Aubrey. The 49ers quickly answered with Brock Purdy finding George Kittle for the third time on a 10 yard touchdown pass, bringing the score to 28-10 heading into the final quarter. The 49ers added two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter with the first coming on a one yard touchdown pass from Brock Purdy to Kyle Juszczyk. Jordan Mason followed with a 26 yard touchdown run. The 49ers defense showed up as well forcing a total of 4 turnovers on three interceptions and one fumble recovery. The final score was 42-10, improving the 49ers to 5-0. Next, the 49ers head to Cleveland to battle the Browns.
