Nico Solorzano

Editor: NFL News and Updates

Weekly Contributor: San Francisco 49ers

The NFL season is here and week one is in the books. There were all sorts of headlines coming from week one, the first being that the Super Bowl Champs were upset on opening night. The up and coming Detroit Lions squeezed out a one point victory over the Kansas City Chiefs. However, this wasn't the biggest story coming from this weekend. The biggest headline has to go to the New York Jets and Aaron Rodgers who tragically ruptured his achilles tendon. This puts the near 40 year-old quarterback out for the season and on the road to a lengthy recovery. The 49ers came out rolling on all cylinders as they blew out the Pittsburgh Steelers. The connection between Brock Purdy and Brandon Aiyuk was on full display as the two teamed up for a pair of touchdowns in the first half. Christian McCaffrey was his usual self, tallying up over 150 yards on the ground. Which included a 65 yard house call led by great blocks from Brandon Aiyuk and Ray-Ray McCloud. On the other side of the ball, the defense was lights-out. Second-year edge rusher Drake Jackson racked up three sacks . The secondary also turned in a strong game with two interceptions, one by Talanoa Hufanga and the other by Charvarius Ward. The final score was 30-7 and moved the 49ers to 1-0. Next up are the Los Angeles Rams in Southern California.

Upcoming Schedule

9/17 - 49ers @ Rams

9/21 - Giants @ 49ers

10/1 - Cardinals @ 49ers

10/8 - 49ers @ Cowboys