Adam Clem
10/28/26

Premier League Updates

Last week's biggest result came at Villa Park, where Aston Villa beat Manchester City 2-1 on Saturday to end City's perfect start. Arsenal took advantage with a 2-0 home win over Everton, and the two sides now sit level on 21 points at the top, with City listed ahead. Brighton stayed third on 16 points despite a 2-0 defeat at Liverpool on Sunday. That result lifts Liverpool to fourth on 15. Chelsea slipped to fifth on 13 after losing 2-0 at home to Tottenham.

Elsewhere, Bournemouth thrashed Manchester United 3-0 at Old Trafford, leaving United 16th on 7 points. Newcastle won 2-0 at Crystal Palace, and Fulham edged Coventry 1-0 away. Ipswich and Nottingham Forest drew 1-1 on Friday night, Hull and Brentford shared a 1-1 draw, and Sunderland and Leeds played out a 0-0 draw. Sunderland remain bottom with 5 points, with Coventry and Forest just above on 6 each.

The standout ties next Saturday are Manchester City hosting Brighton, Chelsea hosting Manchester United, and Tottenham hosting Crystal Palace. Sunday brings the pick of the round, with Liverpool hosting Arsenal.