

Johannah Markrud

Editor: College Sports

Weekly Contributor: Dominican Athletics

Article Title: Dominican Women's Basketball vs. Cal Maritime

Editors: Brooke Vafi

Dominican Women's Basketball vs. Cal Maritime

On December 2nd, Dominican Women's Basketball played Cal Maritime. The game had a very strong offensive start for Dominican. It was 16-0 before Cal Maritime was able to score. The teams would then trade baskets back and forth until the end of the first quarter, Dominican 25-9 leading into the second. Sophomore guard Alyssa Alvarado came off the bench in the second quarter and knocked down back to back 3 pointers and layups. Alvarado finished the game with a career high of 16 points. The Penguins led going into the half, 44-16. Opening the second half, Cal Maritime was able to knock down 3 consecutive 3 pointers. Shortly after the Penguins took back control of the game and finished with a 29 point lead, 79-50. Abby Cooper, a graduate student added 13 points to the board along with 8 rebounds. Forward Taylor Linzie contributed 10 points as well. Dominican out rebounded Cal Maritime by 56-29. Dominican Women's Basketball will take on Point Loma Nazarene University on Thursday at 5:30pm at home.