Breakaway Music Festival

Welcome back to another edition of San Francisco entertainment. This week there is another two- day music festival taking over our beautiful city starting on October 13th. The festival will take place in the heart of the city at the Bill Graham Civic Auditorium. Here are some of the names that will be talked about all weekend; day one is packed with names like Dj Diesel (anyone else-you said packed so you should probably include a couple others_. You might know him as Shaquille O’Neal, he has always had a love for electronic dance music and he has been all over the world the past two years playing his hard style music. Madeon is on the international scene with his pop music genre will perform at (time?). The last massive name of the day-one lineup is Walker & Royce who are a big house music duo that will be providing a night of deep house tunes. Day two is another packed lineup, Alan Walker, is making his return to the 415, bringing his pop style music and good vibes. Nghtmre will also be making his return to the city, after his summer appearance featuring his high energy dubstep music. San Francisco is blessed with being able to host this amazing musical festival. It will surely live up to the hype. If you are still looking for some tickets, there are available tickets at Breakawayfestival.com. To stay up to date with San Francisco’s EDM nightlife, come back next week to the Dominican Beat. Good forecast-most of my tweaks were grammar or punctuation. Rattle the cage of your editors-they are missing some pretty easy to find miscues.
