

Dominican Athletics Weekly Update: Soccer Battles, Volleyball Aims for Victory, and Basketball Season Approaches

Let's dive into the highlights from the past week and what's on the horizon:

Men's Soccer Fights Hard in SoCal:

The men's soccer team faced the league leaders, Point Loma, in a tough matchup that resulted in a loss. However, they bounced back with a 3-1 victory over last year's co-champions, Biola. They now prepare for another exciting game against Westmont in Santa Barbara on Saturday.

Women's Soccer Scores:

The women's soccer team also took on Point Loma and faced a challenging defeat. However, they battled to a hard-fought 0-0 draw against Biola. The women's squad is now geared up for their upcoming match against Westmont, hoping to secure a positive result following the men's game.

Volleyball Seeks Victory at Home:

The women's volleyball team is set to take the court this Saturday at home, facing Academy of Art at 7 pm. It promises to be an exciting and intense matchup that fans won't want to miss.

Cross Country Competes in NCCA West Regionals:

The men's and women's cross country teams are currently in Oregon, competing in the NCCA West Regionals looking to showcase themselves on the big stage.

Basketball Season Approaches:

With the winter sports season fast approaching, the excitement is building as men's and women's basketball teams prepare for their first games of the season next week. Stay tuned for the results and follow their journey as they aim to achieve success on the basketball court.
