

Arianna Pascual

Editor: Golden State Dining

Weekly Contributor: San Francisco Bay Area Culinary Scene

Stan's Doughnut Shop: The Hidden Gem of Silicon Valley

Edited by: Ian Ngo & Lily Zavala

What do you get when you cross Krispy Kreme donuts with hungry man portions and half the price? You will get Stan's Donut Shop—one of Silicon Valley's hidden gems. Inconspicuously located in a strip mall on 2628 Homestead Rd, Santa Clara, CA 95051, Stan's Donut Shop offers freshly-made donuts for $2 each.

Lines are typically long, especially when they open at 5 AM. Many employees from the surrounding companies, such as Apple and Google, make the pilgrimage to Stan's before going to work, so you will never see the place without a group of people waiting patiently to get their prize. With a variety of cinnamon rolls, old-fashioned, and their prize-winning glazed donuts, there is something there for everyone. What makes this place unique is the freshness, as the donuts are cooked right in front of the customers, so you are guaranteed a fresh item at all hours.

Stan's Donut Shop is the hidden gem that people are hoping will stay a secret, but a place like this cannot be indiscreet forever. If you are ever craving a large and fresh $2 donut, then make your way to Santa Clara, CA to visit Stan's Donut Shop. You will not be disappointed, but your waistline might.