This Week's Crumbl Cookie Delights

College students might just need a sweet treat after spending endless, exhausting hours studying. What better way to pamper yourself than to get some dessert from Crumbl Cookie! There is a store just fifteen minutes from campus (132 Vintage Way Unit F-11, Novato, CA 94945) that sells a large variety of warm, freshly baked cookies. Crumbl offers a weekly rotating menu featuring six delectable tastes selected from a wide variety of cookies and sweets. Every week, the menu rotates to feature an updated set of six exciting desserts. This week, they're selling their famous milk chocolate chip cookie, a classic treat that's thick, soft, and packed with milk chocolate chips. Their second cookie is a confetti cake. It consists of two fluffy tiers of cake generously layered with smooth vanilla buttercream. Next is the birthday cake. Ft. OREO, a thick cookie made with OREO pieces, covered in cake batter and cream cheese frosting. If you didn't find those three delectable flavors intriguing, just wait until you hear about the remaining cookie kinds in this week's roundup. The fourth cookie of the week is Peanut Butter Ft. Snickers: a peanut butter cookie studded with chopped snickers, topped with caramel buttercream. The fifth Crumbl cookie of the week is the caramel shortbread ft. TWIX: A shortbread-inspired cookie filled with TWIX pieces. Last but certainly not least is the original pink sugar: An almond sugar cookie topped with real almond frosting.
