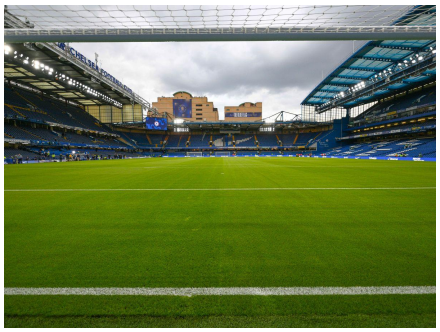
Devin McNamara Pittler



Premier League Mayhem

To kick off the weekend, Arsenal traveled to Newcastle, with both teams situated in the top half of the table. The game concluded 1-0 in Newcastle's favor, but not without controversy. During Anthony Gordon's 64th-minute goal, a foul was committed on Arsenal's center-back, Gabriel, just before the goal. The play did not undergo VAR (video assistant referee) review, leading to significant controversy. Arsenal coach Mikel Arteta, in a post-game interview, called for better refereeing and increased accountability.

Sheffield United faced Wolves, both residing in the bottom half of the table and seeking crucial points. Sheffield United secured a 2-1 victory, lifting them from last place to 19th. Wolves maintained their 12th position with a comfortable gap from the relegation zone.

Manchester City confronted Bournemouth, securing a commanding 6-1 victory and claiming the top spot, just one point ahead of second-placed Arsenal. Bournemouth, positioned in 17th, with a mere three-point cushion above the relegation zone, aims to gather points in the upcoming weeks.

Everton vs. Brighton resulted in a 1-1 draw. Brighton moved up to 8th, continuing their solid form, while Everton climbed to 14th, showing improvement compared to earlier in the season.

Crystal Palace defeated last-placed Burnley 2-0, maintaining their 13th position, just a point away from the top half of the table.

West Ham traveled to Brentford, both teams separated by a single point on the table. Brentford won the game 3-2, climbing to 11th and aiming to break into the top half in the coming weeks.

Manchester United beat Fulham 1-0 with a late winner by Bruno Fernandes. United moved up to 6th, eyeing a top-four position, while Fulham sits in 16th, just two spots above the relegation zone.

Luton faced Liverpool in a surprising 1-1 draw, securing a much-needed point for Luton against Premier League giants Liverpool. Luton is in 18th and aims to climb out of the relegation zone, while Liverpool sits in third, tied on points with second-placed Arsenal and one point behind league leaders Manchester City.

In the last game of the weekend, Chelsea took on Tottenham. Tottenham's struggles continued with Cristian Romero and Destiny Udogie both receiving red cards. With 9 men, Tottenham lost 4-1 to 11 men Chelsea. Tottenham dropped three spots to 4th on the table, while Chelsea moved up to 10th in the top half.