

Johannah Markrud

Editor: College Sports

Weekly Contributor: Dominican Athletics

Article Title: Dominican Women's Soccer vs. Vanguard University

Editors: Brooke Vafi

Dominican Women's Soccer vs. Vanguard University

On Saturday November 2nd, Dominican women's soccer seniors played their last home game. The seniors were recognized for all of their hard work and effort they had put in over their years of being a Penguin. Both teams brought out very good energy to start the game, making finishing challenging for both teams. Vanguards' Natalie Fong had the first shot on goal to the bottom right corner, but Haro was positioned to meet the ball. Precious Martinez then had a shot on goal in the 11th minute, but was shut down by Jordin Holmquist-Wilder. In the 27th minute, junior Jenna Pevenage took a corner kick that Ashlyn Hill headed in. To put the penguins ahead 1-0. Both teams continued to keep the pressure and intensity up for the remainder of the game. Vanguard University ended up with only 2 shots on goal and Dominican had 3. The game finished 1-0, Dominican. The Penguins will wrap up their season on November 9th at Westmont College.